Consequences of withdrawing from the agreement

In the case of withdrawing from the present agreement, we return all payments received from you, including delivery costs (save for additional costs resulting from the delivery method selected by you other than the standard, least expensive delivery method we offer), immediately and not later than within 14 days from the day of receiving the information about your decision to exercise your right to withdraw from the present agreement. The return of payments will be made with the same payment methods as used by you in the original transaction, unless you explicitly agree otherwise. In any event you will not be charged for this repayment. We may withhold the repayment until we receive the products or a proof of their shipment, depending on which event is earlier.

Please send back or otherwise return the object immediately, and not later than within 14 days from the day of informing us about withdrawing from the present agreement. The deadline is deemed met if you send the objects within 14 days. You will be obliged to cover the direct costs of returning the objects.
